1. On 16 February 1953 the Chiangmen (N 22-34, E 113-06) paper mill was sabotaged. Supplies including 600,000 cattles of sugar cane, 60 to 70 tons of native newsprint, 4,000 bundles of toilet paper, 30 tons of parchment-like paper, 30 drums of diesel oil, over 100 cases of soap, and three sets of machinery were demolished or made useless; one boiler was destroyed; and one paper warehouse burned down. Repairs will probably require several months' work.
2. Chiangmen and Hsinhui (N 22-34, E 113-06) were put under martial law immediately after the sabotage was discovered. Public security police of Hsinhui made searches all through the night. All plant workers were questioned, and more than ten were detained by the police.
